TORRIDON

Dan Rose-Bristow

Owner and Managing Director, The Torridon Resort, Wester Ross

Dan is Managing Director and owner of The Torridon Resort with his wife, Rohaise, having taken a strategic approach to redeveloping The Torridon over the past decade. A place like no other, the five-star resort is set in a 58-acre estate in the Scottish Highlands, boasting luxury bedrooms, a 3 rosette restaurant, a 2 acre productive kitchen garden and farm, and an outdoor adventure company for guests to experience. Employing up to 55 staff – with the majority living on site - Dan is responsible for the financial and strategic direction of The Torridon, overseeing marketing activity, sustainability and development of the estate. The Torridon is the only hotel to win AA Scottish Hotel of the Year twice and was named Independent Hotel of the Year at the 2018 Cateys. In 2020, The Torridon featured on BBC's Amazing Hotels: Life Beyond the Lobby and is regularly sited as one of Britain's top resort hotels.

In addition to his responsibilities as a successful hotelier, Dan has gained recognition in the hospitality industry as a member of Master Innholders – of which he is currently vice chairman and treasurer; former chairman of Pride of Britain Hotels; and director of Luxury Scotland Consortium.

Dan believes in strong integrity in the way he lives and works and is always daring his team to be different and driven to be the best. This is evident in what has been created at The Torridon. The resort is very much a family home and there is real passion to make all those who visit feel special in a place like no other.

Dan was awarded the Master Innholders Derek Balls Scholarship in 2017 and attended Cranfield University. He continues to be actively involved in the UK hospitality industry.
